RESOLUTIONS.

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to report that in our opinion intemperance tends to retard the progress of the colored race more than any other known evil. More than two-thirds of all crimes committed are traceable to the use of ardent spirits. No one can fail to see its direful effects, if he will visit the poor houses, jails and penitentiary of the State, whose majority, in every instance, was made so by intemperance. We look in sadness upon the inebriates' widows and orphans in their poverty, and pray for the dawn that will drive it from the doors of our neighborhoods and friends ; therefore be it

Resolved by the Sunday School Convention, That each worker will discountenance its use and do all in his power to arrest its baneful results.

J. T. REYNOLDS,
MISS C. BELLAMY,
SPIER PITMAN,
Committee.

Resolved, That the Convention have 1200 copies of minutes printed and distributed among the various Sabbath Schools represented in the Convention.

By G. M. PITTMAN.

WHEREAS, A printing press would be of great service to this Convention and the Baptist cause generally, therefore be it

Reeolved, That the Exeeutive Committee be instructed to take the matter into consideration and endeavor to procure one as soon as possible.

By J. T. THOMPSON.

WHEREAS, Miss C. Bellamy, the Superintendent of the Battleboro Sunday School, and Mrs. B. B. Wiley, the Assistant, have labored so zealously and under such unfavorable circumstances during the last two years to build up their Sunday School, after having all their books taken once, then the church reduced to ashes, and their library again destroyed, therefore be it

Resolved, That the ministets and delegates of this Convention give them their hearty co-operation, and pray God to bless their efforts.

WHEREAS, Rev. A. Sheppard, our State Sunday School Missionary, who has within the last twelve months travelled 4,842 miles, sold 1,744 Bibles and other books, organized 19 Sunday Schools, made 50 addresses to Sunday Schools, and is to-day doing a great work in evangelizing the people and building up the cause of the Master, therefore

Resolved, That the members and delegates of this Convention give their hearty co-operation and pray God to bless his labors.

Ry J. T. REYNOLDS.

WHEREAS, The Rev. C. Johnson, Bible Reader and Colporteur of the State of North Carolina, has travelled extensively in the dark regions of the State, and given light to some of the many benighted minds in our borders, therefore Resolved. That our hearty thanks are hereby tendered him and the Society which is represented, for his energetic labor.

By E. E. SMITH.

Resolved, That we, the Sabbath School workers, do hereby tender our hearty thanks to the brethren, sisters and friends of Battleboro for their hospitality toward us during the session of the Convention, and that we will ever remember them and believe that God will abundantly bless them for their efforts and crown them with success.

By MISS M. A. REYNOLDS.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty to remove from our midst, our esteemed brother, Wiley May, who was with us in the last meeting of this Convention; and whereas, He was a faithful and energetic Sunday School worker, and the loss of him is greatly felt in the church to which he belonged; therefore,

Resolved, That we hold him dear in our memory, and pray that the seed which he has sown may bring forth much fruit for the Master's Kingdom.

By Rev. J. PERRY.

Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty, in His divine providence, to remove by death Miss Elizabeth Halley, one of our Sunday School workers; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the Ministers and Delegates of this Convention, hold her sacred in our memory.

By Miss R. A. PERSON.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TIME AND PLACE.

We, your Committee on Time and Place, beg leave to report as follows: That the Seventh Annual Meeting of this Convention be held in the First Baptist Church in Wilmington, New Hanover County, on Wednesday before the fourth Sunday in September, 1878.

Rev. L. H. WYCHE,
Miss R. A. PERSON,
Miss L. T. JACKSON,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PROPOSITIONS.

We, your Committee on Propositions, beg leave to report as follows: That each School belonging to this Convention shall contribute annually two cents per scholar represented by said School. New schools may be represented upon the same terms.

The above resolution shall go in force from the time adopted.

—Several productions were presented and read before the Convention, which were very interesting, but the Committee on Revision of the Minutes thought it best not to publish them as they would require a good deal of space and be very expensive.

The Biblical Recorder,

(ESTABLISHED 1832.)

Rev. C. T. BAILEY, Editor.

The BIBLICAL RECORDER, as the Organ of the Baptists of North Carolina, has for the last forty years ably and faithfully "contended for the faith once delivered to the saints" and accomplished a great work for us as a people. Under God it has been one of the most powerful instrumentalities in defending His truth and advancing the spiritual and temporal interests of His people. It is still a necessity, and with renewed vigor it is ready to enter every opened door to carry the glad tidings of the Gospel and do service for The Master. "Grounded in the truth," not carried away with new and strange doctrines, it is in the opinion of thousands of the wisest Baptists of the South, the best representative of Baptist faith and practice and among the ablest defenders of our denominational interests. It is a duty every Baptist family owes to its members that this paper should be regularly read by them. It will point your children to Christ. It will teach them the grand distinguishing principles of the Baptists. It will teach them to love and defend the religion of their fathers and of the New Testament. It will prepare you for the changes that are to come over us as a denomination and enable you to meet and defend your faith against the new forms of error and the new isms that some are attempting to bring in. Every Baptist family needs the RECORDER and should make some sacrifice to secure it. To its influence we owe the existence and prosperity of our College and the Baptist State Convention. More than ever before it is needed in sustaining these institutions and for the defence of our principles in the State. You need it. Do you take It? Send for it. Get your brethren to do so.
